

COOMBE TRENCHARD

An Edwardian Estate in the Arts & Crafts Manner

PETITE & BEAUTIFUL

Stylish weddings without compromise

PETITE & BEAUTIFUL

Coombe Trenchard, nestled on the fringe of wildly romantic Dartmoor, is delighted to present a petite yet beautifully tailored wedding day opportunity.

Marry and experience a memorable day to treasure within our unique Edwardian Country House Estate.

A fully co-ordinated package provided by a team of wedding professionals - this is effortless wedding planning with style, beauty, and elegance.

With extensive experience in planning personal & bespoke weddings, we're aware of the monumental time and effort required to achieve the wedding day you dreamed of. Being lucky enough to work with the very best of wedding suppliers, we have handpicked contributors of an exceptionally high standard and trust them to maintain Coombe Trenchard's impeccable level of style and service. Taking this responsibility and insight one step further, we can now offer the wonder of a wedding without any of the stress.

“The house has a magic of its own; from the sweeping staircases and hand-carved doors to the antique furnishings and objects d'art – as well as curiosities such as the intriguing disappearing wall – it offers magnificent period features and charm in abundance.”

Guests can enjoy canapés and celebratory fizz served in vintage champagne saucers, within the striking Great Hall, or on the stunning Southern Terrace

Relax in the beautiful gardens, woodland and parkland and steal precious moments together for your memorable wedding images

Steal precious moments together within stunning surroundings, creating memories of your petite yet perfect day.

A FEAST FOR ALL THE SENSES

Fantastic food is hugely important to us at Coombe Trenchard, which means we only work with chefs of the highest standard, who will wow you and your guests every time.

Our petite and beautiful package includes the finest of feasts – indulging your senses through presentation, colour, texture, seasonality and scent, without compromise.

Tables will be adorned with freshly picked seasonal blooms from the cutting garden, vintage linens, the prettiest china, antique glassware and silverware, to create a very special dining experience.

Once seated in your chosen location within the main house or coach house, a three-course wedding breakfast from our private chefs will be served leisurely, with selected wines.

A hand made beautifully decorated wedding cake on an elegant stand, will be displayed for the cake cutting, along with a glass of fizz to toast.

As evening unfolds, we invite you to gather at the Peacock Bar for a signature cocktail and woodfired pizzas to share as the light fades.

Complete this most special of days toasting marshmallows by the fire, amidst the soft glow of candle light, festoons and that Dartmoor night sky.

A truly magical day, with memories made.

“Coombe Trenchard is one of those places that stays with you; it has its own personality and magic. From the moment we came to visit there was never any doubt where we would be holding our wedding: nothing could compare. The personal service we received from Sarah was astounding and it certainly calmed my bridal nerves to feel so looked after. I will always be thankful for the invaluable assistance and genuine care we received, what a truly special place.”
